Digi Keralam Survey (August 03–08, 2024)

The NSS Unit No. 099 of Al Jamia Arts and Science College, Perinthalmanna, in collaboration with the Kerala Digital Mission, successfully conducted the Digi Keralam Survey from August 3 to 8, 2024, within the Perinthalmanna Municipality. The primary objective of the programme was to assess and enhance the digital literacy and accessibility of residents as part of the state's broader initiative towards digital empowerment.

Volunteers actively engaged in door-to-door data collection, educating the public on digital platforms, e-governance tools, and online services provided by the government. The initiative not only promoted awareness about the digital transformation happening across Kerala but also fostered community interaction, enabling students to gain valuable field experience in public engagement and data-driven social outreach. The survey was well-received by the local community and appreciated by municipal authorities for its contribution to grassroots-level digital inclusion.

VOLUNTEERS AT MUNICIPAL OFFICE FOR TRAINING PROGRAMME

Bus Stop Cleaning (August 14, 2024)

On August 14, 2024, the NSS Unit No. 099 of Al Jamia Arts and Science College, Perinthalmanna, organized a Bus Stop Cleaning drive as part of the Swachhatha Hi Seva. The event aimed to promote cleanliness and public hygiene, aligning with the NSS's commitment to community service and environmental responsibility.

Volunteers actively participated in cleaning and beautifying several bus stops in and around Perinthalmanna, removing litter, weeds, and posters while spreading awareness on responsible public behavior. The programme instilled a sense of civic duty among the students and received positive responses from the local commuters and municipal officials. It was a significant step toward encouraging community involvement in maintaining public spaces clean and safe.

Independence Day Celebration

The Independence Day Celebration at Al Jamia Arts and Science College, Perinthalmanna, was held on August 15, 2024, with great patriotism and enthusiasm. The programme was organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit 099, in the presence of students, staff members, and administrative authorities. The national flag was hoisted by the Principal, Farshana K, marking the beginning of the day's events. The flag hoisting was followed by the national anthem, which resonated across the campus, instilling a deep sense of unity and national pride.

Farshana K addressed the gathering with a thoughtful Independence Day message, emphasizing the values of freedom, democracy, and the responsibility of youth in nation-building. Her speech inspired students to reflect on the sacrifices made by the freedom fighters and to uphold the principles of integrity, equality, and justice. The NSS volunteers actively participated in organizing and coordinating the event. Students also presented patriotic songs, speeches, and short performances, adding color and emotion to the celebration.

The programme concluded with a collective pledge by students and staff to contribute positively to society and uphold the spirit of independence in everyday life. The Independence Day celebration served as a reminder of the college's commitment to fostering patriotic values, civic responsibility, and active citizenship among students.

Fund Collection Drive for Wayanad Landslide Victims

In response to the tragic landslide that struck Wayanad, severely affecting tribal and rural communities, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit 099 of Al Jamia Arts and Science College, Perinthalmanna, organized a campus-wide fund collection campaign under the banner. The primary aim of the programme was to stand in solidarity with the victims by raising financial support for their immediate relief and rehabilitation. The initiative encouraged voluntary contributions from students, staff, and well-wishers, fostering a strong sense of social responsibility and collective action.

Through awareness campaigns, posters, and mobilization efforts, the student community actively participated, showing unwavering compassion and commitment. The programme became a symbol of humanitarian support and youth-led social intervention, echoing the core values of NSS—not me, but you. The initiative was coordinated under the leadership of the NSS Programme Officer and student leaders, in collaboration with the Students Union (ZINDA), ensuring transparency, inclusivity, and impactful outreach. This noble effort stands as a testament to the institution's ongoing commitment to social causes and its responsiveness to national calamities through student empowerment and community engagement.

NJAARU NADAL Rice Sapling Plantation Festival

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit No. 099 of Al Jamia Arts and Science College, Perinthalmanna, organized a traditional and eco-centric initiative titled Rice Sapling Plantation Festival on September 28, 2024, at Shanthapuram. The program was conducted as part of the NSS's mission to promote community involvement, environmental sustainability, and rural engagement. The event focused on traditional paddy cultivation practices, where NSS volunteers joined hands with local farmers to engage in the rice sapling plantation process. The activity offered students a first-hand experience of agrarian life, bridging the gap between rural traditions and modern academic environments. Volunteers worked barefoot in lush green paddy fields, under the guidance of experienced local farmers, immersing themselves in the value of hard work, teamwork, and sustainability.

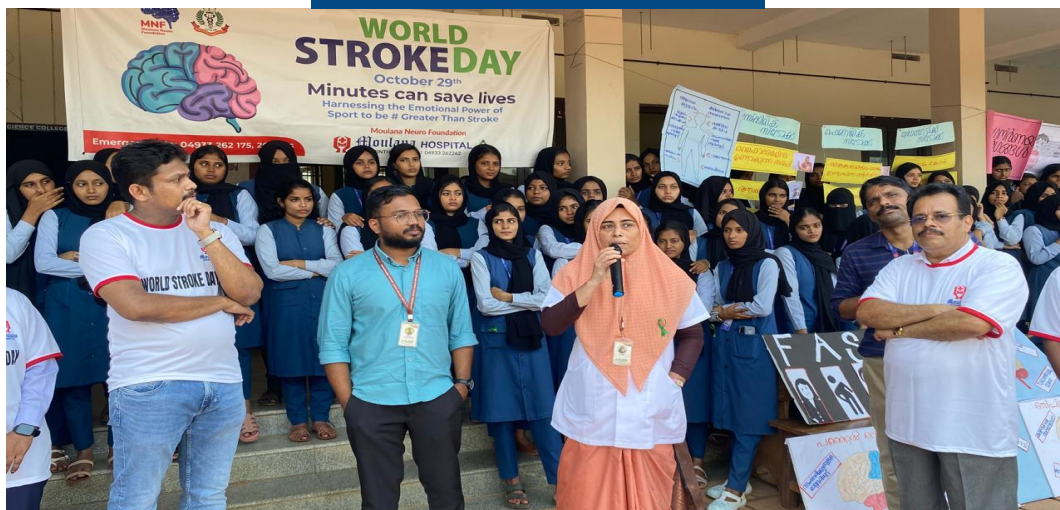

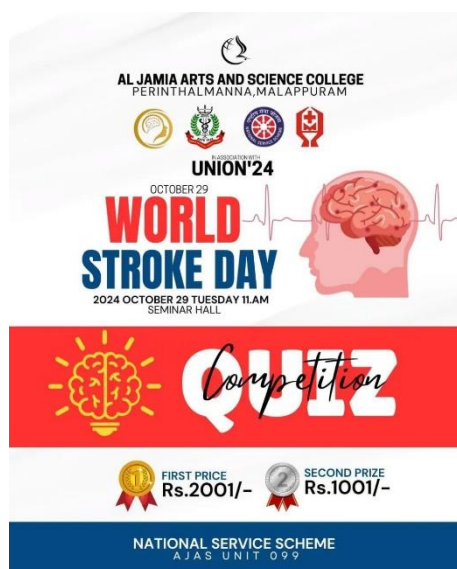

This agricultural outreach programme was not just a learning experience, but also a celebration of Kerala's rich farming heritage. It aimed to reignite interest in agriculture among the youth, encourage respect for farmers, and emphasize the importance of food security and environmental balance. The program concluded with an interactive session between volunteers and farmers, followed by refreshments. The efforts of the NSS Unit were widely appreciated by the local community for reinforcing the spirit of volunteerism, service, and ecological awareness.

World Stroke Day – Quiz Competition & Awareness Session

As part of World Stroke Day observance, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit 099 of Al Jamia Arts and Science College, Perinthalmanna, in association with Moulana Hospital and UNION'24, organized a Quiz Competition and Stroke Awareness Session on October 29, 2024, at 11:00 AM in the Seminar Hall. The event began with an expert-led awareness session by healthcare professionals from Moulana Hospital, focusing on the causes, symptoms, and prevention of stroke, along with immediate response actions. The session aimed to educate students on the importance of timely intervention in stroke cases and promote healthy lifestyle choices.

Following the session, an interdepartmental quiz competition was conducted, testing participants' knowledge on stroke awareness, general health, and neurology. Students from various departments actively participated in the contest. The winners were awarded a first prize of ₹2001 and second prize of ₹1001. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation and succeeded in spreading awareness about stroke among the student community. The NSS unit, with the valuable support of Moulana Hospital, played a vital role in making the program both informative and impactful.

ORIENTATION PROGRAMME

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit 099 of Al Jamia Arts and Science College, Perinthalmanna, organized an Orientation Programme on October 31, 2024, at 9:00 AM in the college seminar hall. The event commenced with an inaugural address by the college principal, Farshana K, who highlighted the vital role of NSS in shaping socially responsible and empathetic youth. The session aimed to introduce new volunteers to the objectives, activities, and impact of the NSS movement. The seminar hall witnessed active participation from fresh volunteers and staff members, all eager to understand the spirit of volunteerism and community service.

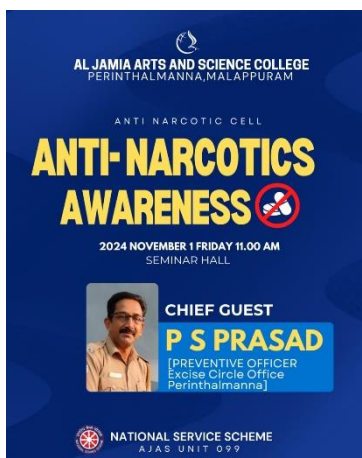

The programme was graced by the presence of Mr. Muhammed Rafeek T, District Coordinator of NSS Palakkad under the University of Calicut, who served as the Chief Guest. In his keynote address, he emphasized the significance of youth engagement in social transformation through NSS activities. The session was chaired by Mr. Rahees C, Programme Officer of NSS AJAS Unit, who encouraged the students to uphold the values of discipline, service, and teamwork. The orientation concluded with an interactive session where volunteers shared their aspirations and received guidance on future activities. The event proved to be an inspiring beginning for the new batch of NSS volunteers.

ANTI NARCOTIC AWARENESS

The Anti Narcotic Cell in association with the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit 099 of Al Jamia Arts and Science College, Perinthalmanna, organized an Anti-Narcotics Awareness Programme on November 1, 2024, at 11:00 AM in the college seminar hall. The event was part of the institution's ongoing efforts to educate students about the dangers of substance abuse and to promote a drug-free campus. The seminar aimed to sensitize the student community on the legal, physical, and psychological consequences of narcotic drug use.

The session was inaugurated by the Chief Guest, Mr. P S Prasad, Preventive Officer at the Excise Circle Office, Perinthalmanna. In his impactful address, he discussed the rising trend of drug abuse among youth and shared real-life cases from his professional experience, making the session both informative and thought-provoking. He urged students to remain vigilant and act responsibly as change-makers in society. The programme concluded with an interactive Q&A session, where students actively participated, seeking clarity on various aspects of drug law enforcement and rehabilitation. The event successfully instilled awareness and inspired the students to take a strong stand against drugs.

CHILDRENS DAY CELEBRATION

As part of its commitment to community engagement and child welfare, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit 099 of Al Jamia Arts and Science College, Perinthalmanna, organized a vibrant Children's Day celebration at Pooppalam Anganwadi on November 14, 2024. The event was conducted with the objective of bringing joy and happiness to young children while fostering social responsibility among NSS volunteers. The entire Anganwadi was beautifully decorated with balloons and art, creating a lively and cheerful environment for the children.

The programme included a variety of fun-filled activities such as games, singing, dancing, and storytelling sessions. NSS volunteers enthusiastically participated by performing skits and songs, distributing sweets, and organizing playful contests. The children actively engaged in the celebration with laughter and excitement. The Anganwadi teachers and local residents appreciated the initiative, highlighting the importance of such interactions in strengthening community bonds. The event concluded with the distribution of gifts and a group photo session, leaving a lasting smile on every child's face.

Republic Day Celebration

The 76th Republic Day of India was celebrated with great enthusiasm and patriotic fervor at Al Jamia Arts and Science College, Perinthalmanna, under the leadership of NSS Unit No. 099, on January 26, 2025. The celebration was organized to honor the day the Constitution of India came into effect, marking the country's transition to a sovereign republic. The program commenced at 9:00 AM with the hoisting of the national flag by the College Principal, followed by the national anthem. A solemn and proud atmosphere pervaded the campus as the tri-colour fluttered against the morning sky. The flag hoisting was followed by an inspiring Republic Day message from the Principal, who emphasized the values enshrined in the Constitution and reminded students of their duty towards the nation as responsible citizens.

NSS volunteers conducted a patriotic march-past and participated in a cultural session that featured patriotic songs, speeches, and skits highlighting the sacrifices of national heroes and the importance of unity in diversity. Students from various departments actively participated, showcasing their talents and expressing their love for the nation. A special session was also held to discuss the importance of democracy, fundamental rights, and responsibilities of the youth in nation-building. The NSS Programme Officer addressed the gathering, stressing the need for youth participation in social development and civic responsibility.

The event concluded with a pledge taken by all participants to uphold the ideals of the Constitution and work towards a progressive and inclusive India. The celebration not only instilled a deep sense of patriotism among the students but also reinforced their understanding of democratic values and civic duties. The event was successfully coordinated by NSS volunteers, reflecting the NSS motto “Not Me, But You.”

Haritha Mithram Survey (January 27–30, 2025)

As part of its commitment to environmental responsibility, NSS Unit No. 099 of Al Jamia Arts and Science College conducted the Haritha Mithram Survey from January 27 to 30, 2025, across various wards of the Angadippuram Grama Panchayath. This initiative was undertaken in collaboration with the Suchitwa Mission and Haritha Kerala Mission with the primary objective of collecting data on household waste management practices, levels of plastic use, awareness about Haritha Karma Sena, and the community's engagement with sustainable practices.

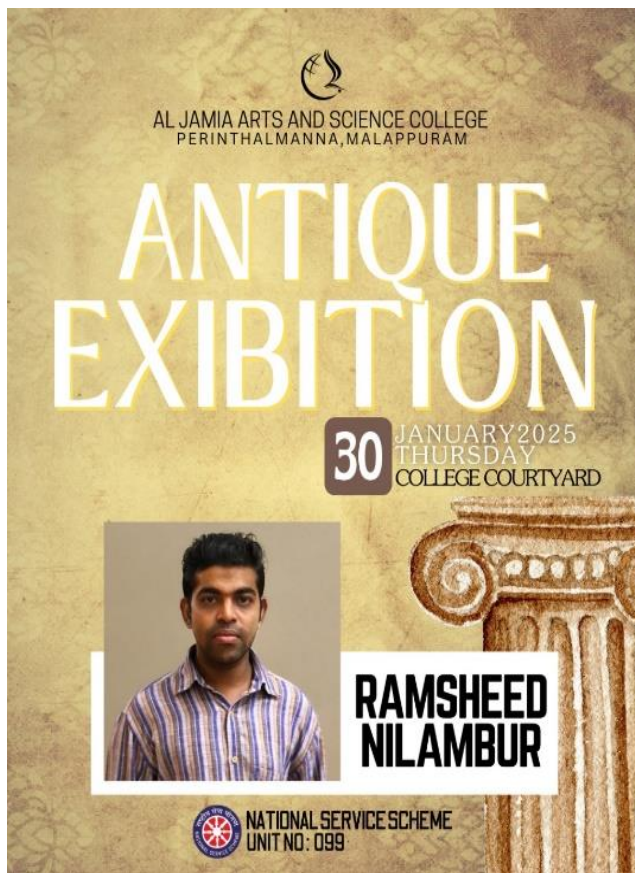

The survey involved active participation from NSS volunteers who carried out door-to-door data collection. Volunteers also engaged with local residents to spread awareness on waste segregation, composting methods, and the importance of reducing plastic usage. The data collected through this mission served as a valuable resource for local self-governments to strengthen eco-friendly initiatives. The activity not only empowered volunteers with field-level experience but also reinforced NSS's core objective of community service through environmental action.

Antique Exhibition – Fundraiser for Medical Aid

On January 30, 2025, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit No. 099 of Al Jamia Arts and Science College organized an Antique Exhibition in the college courtyard. The exhibition featured a personal collection of antique items curated by Mr. Ramsheed Nilambur, whose passion for preserving historical artifacts was truly admirable. The display included rare coins, traditional tools, vintage utensils, and cultural relics that drew immense interest from students and faculty alike.

The event held a deeper significance as it was conducted as a fundraising initiative for the medical treatment of Mr. Ramsheed Nilambur, who is undergoing treatment for kidney disease. All proceeds collected from the exhibition were directed toward supporting his urgent medical needs. The program was a moving example of how cultural engagement and community support can come together meaningfully. NSS volunteers ensured the smooth conduct of the exhibition, reflecting the unit's unwavering commitment to social service and human empathy.

Blood Track – Blood Group Identification Programme

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit No. 099, in collaboration with the Department of Microbiology, organized a Blood Group Identification Programme titled "Blood Track" on February 5, 2025, at 10:00 AM. The initiative aimed to help students and faculty identify and record their blood groups, thereby promoting health awareness and readiness for emergency situations.

The programme witnessed active participation from students across all departments. Under the supervision of trained microbiology faculty and volunteers, each participant was tested using standard medical practices. The event also emphasized the importance of blood donation and the role of youth in addressing health emergencies and social responsibility. Volunteers played a key role in coordinating the logistics, ensuring hygiene, and assisting with the medical process, showcasing the spirit of teamwork and service central to NSS values.
