REPORT

Awareness Class on Women Empowerment Conducted at Women's Islamiya College, Wandoor

In a collaborative effort aimed at fostering awareness and empowerment among young women, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Women's Islamiya College, Wandoor, joined hands with the Department of Psychology at Al Jamia Arts and Science College, Perinthalmanna. This initiative culminated in an enlightening awareness class held at Women's Islamiya College on January 17, 2023.

The session, orchestrated by the IQAC of Women's Islamiya College and facilitated by the Department of Psychology from Al Jamia Arts and Science College, aimed to empower female students with knowledge and insights pertinent to their growth and development in today's society. The focus of the class centered on the theme of women empowerment, addressing crucial issues faced by women in various facets of life.

Fathima Shiril, a dedicated psychology student from Al Jamia Arts and Science College, was instrumental in delivering a thought-provoking and insightful lecture during the session. Her presentation resonated deeply with the attendees, predominantly students from Women's Islamiya College, who eagerly absorbed her words of wisdom and guidance.

The event commenced with an introduction by faculty members from both institutions, emphasizing the importance of such initiatives in shaping the perspectives and aspirations of young women. The interactive session that followed allowed students to engage actively with the subject matter, discussing challenges, opportunities, and strategies for personal and professional growth.

In her address, Fathima Shiril elucidated on various aspects of women empowerment, drawing from psychological theories and real-life examples to underscore the significance of self-confidence, education, and societal support in fostering an empowered female populace. Her presentation not only educated but also inspired the attendees to reflect on their roles and potential contributions to society.

The Principal of Women's Islamiya College, expressing gratitude to Al Jamia Arts and Science College and Fathima Shiril for their collaboration and impactful contribution, highlighted the event as a significant milestone in the academic and personal development of the students. Such initiatives, he emphasized, are crucial in shaping well-rounded individuals equipped to navigate and contribute meaningfully to the world around them.

The session concluded with a vote of thanks, wherein the organizers reiterated their commitment to organizing similar initiatives in the future, fostering a culture of empowerment and enlightenment among the students of Women's Islamiya College.

The collaborative effort between Women's Islamiya College and Al Jamia Arts and Science College stands as a testament to the power of education and partnership in advancing the cause of women empowerment in today's society. With such initiatives, these institutions continue to nurture and empower the leaders of tomorrow.
