REPORT

FRIENDLY INTERACTION WITH SALVA CARE OLD AGE HOME RESIDENTS

The NSS unit of Al Jamia Arts and Science College, Poopalamb, organized a heartwarming day of interaction with the residents of Salva Care Old Age Home in Pandikkad on 01/05/2022. This initiative aimed to bridge generational gaps and spread cheer among the elderly.

Led by Programme Officer KM Salmanul Faris, the volunteers enthusiastically engaged the residents in a variety of activities. These included soulful singing sessions, captivating storytelling, intricate mehndi art, and more. The volunteers, KT Rifathullah and TK Fathima Dilna, ensured that every resident felt valued and cherished throughout the day.

The atmosphere at Salva Care Old Age Home was one of joy and camaraderie as the college students and elderly residents bonded over shared experiences and interests. The lively interactions not only brought smiles to the faces of the residents but also left a lasting impression on the volunteers.

Speaking about the initiative, Programme Officer KM Salmanul Faris expressed his delight in seeing the positive impact on both the students and the elderly. He highlighted the importance of such interactions in fostering empathy and understanding among the youth while providing companionship and happiness to the elderly.

Residents of Salva Care Old Age Home were equally appreciative of the efforts put forth by the NSS unit. They expressed gratitude for the thoughtful gestures and the opportunity to engage in meaningful activities with the students.

The day concluded with heartfelt exchanges of gratitude and promises to continue such initiatives in the future. The NSS unit of Al Jamia Arts and Science College affirmed its commitment to serving the community and spreading joy through such compassionate endeavors.

Overall, the friendly interaction between the NSS unit and the residents of Salva Care Old Age Home stands as a testament to the power of community service and the positive impact of intergenerational bonding. It exemplifies the spirit of compassion and solidarity that is integral to both education and community welfare.
