REPORT

FOOD KITS DONATED TO SALWA CARE HOME PANDIKKAD

Al Jamia Arts and Science College, in collaboration with the Life Science Department and College Union, fervently marked World Food Day on October 16, 2019, with a series of insightful and impactful events. The highlight of the day was the inauguration of a vibrant food festival by Principal A.P. Riyas, underscoring the importance of nutrition and food security.

The festivities kicked off with the guidance and support of the Food Technology Department, which played a pivotal role in organizing engaging activities throughout the day. One of the notable initiatives was a heartwarming visit by students to the Salwa Care Old Age Home Pandikkad, where they generously distributed food kits, spreading smiles and warmth among the elderly residents. This gesture not only exemplified compassion but also reinforced the college's commitment to community service.

Throughout the day, students had the privilege of interacting closely with distinguished faculty members, including Ms. Nishath, Head of the Life Science Department, and teachers Salman, Safna, Arifa, and Afla. Their mentorship and encouragement empowered students to actively participate and contribute to the success of the event.

The College Union also played a pivotal role in ensuring the event's success, with Hananurahman, the Union Chairman, leading by example and rallying students to engage wholeheartedly in the festivities. Fasal, the Life Science Arts Secretary, and Ameen, the Life Science Department Association Secretary, demonstrated exemplary leadership and organizational skills, overseeing various aspects of the program with efficiency and dedication.

The celebration of World Food Day at Al Jamia Arts and Science College was not merely a commemoration but a collective effort to raise awareness about global food issues, promote sustainable practices, and foster a sense of responsibility towards community welfare. Students, faculty, and staff alike came together to celebrate the diversity and richness of food cultures while emphasizing the need for equitable access to nutritious food for all.

Principal A.P. Riyas expressed his gratitude to everyone involved for their enthusiasm and commitment to making the event a resounding success. He highlighted the significance of such initiatives in shaping socially responsible individuals and nurturing a culture of empathy and compassion among students.

As the day concluded, the spirit of camaraderie and service lingered, setting a precedent for future endeavors aimed at making a positive impact on society. Al Jamia Arts and Science
