REPORT

The General ward Painting at Perinthalmanna Hospital

Volunteers from the NSS Unit of Al Jamia Arts and Science College undertook a commendable initiative to refurbish the general ward at Perinthalmanna District Hospital. Led by NSS Programme Officer Mr. Abdul Musabir, the team focused their efforts on painting the ward to enhance its aesthetics and create a more pleasant environment for patients.

On December 23, 2019, enthusiastic volunteers gathered at the hospital to repaint the walls of the general ward. Their dedication and teamwork brought a fresh look to the space, aiming to uplift spirits and provide a welcoming atmosphere for patients undergoing treatment.

Mr. Abdul Musabir highlighted the importance of such community service projects in instilling values of empathy and social responsibility among the youth. He commended the volunteers for their commitment and expressed gratitude to everyone who participated in making the initiative a success.

Volunteers shared their satisfaction in contributing to the well-being of patients and expressed happiness in seeing the immediate impact of their work on the hospital environment.

The Principal of Al Jamia Arts and Science College lauded the NSS Unit for their proactive approach in engaging with the community and making a positive difference in healthcare facilities.

This painting project was conducted as part of the NSS Special Camp of the 2018-2020 batch, showcasing their ongoing dedication to community service and enhancing public spaces for the benefit of all.
