Dear Students,

As part of our ongoing efforts to foster community service and extend support to those in need, we are pleased to announce the launch of a donation drive for the Chief Minister's Distress Relief Fund (CM's Relief Fund). We are launching a special initiative under the auspices of the NSS unit. Collection boxes are available campus-wide, and volunteers are ready to assist. Your participation is vital. As you may be aware, the Chief Minister's Distress Relief Fund (CM's Relief Fund) plays a crucial role in assisting those in our community who are facing unexpected financial challenges due to various reasons such as natural calamities, health emergencies, and other unforeseen circumstances.

REPORT

FUND CONTRIBUTION TO CMDRF (Chief Minister's Distress Relief Fund)

In a heartfelt display of compassion and solidarity, the NSS unit of Al Jamia Arts and Science College, Poopalam, under the guidance of Programme Officer Mr. Salih V., and with the strong support of Principal Mr. Riyas A.P., rallied together with staff and students to contribute ₹10,350 to the Chief Minister's Distress Relief Fund. The donation, made on September 17, 2018, underscores the unit's commitment to aiding families and individuals affected by natural calamities, accidents resulting in loss of life, and those in need of medical treatment for major diseases.

The Chief Minister's Distress Relief Fund (CMDRF) serves as a crucial emergency assistance scheme, providing vital relief to deserving individuals across the state during times of crisis. The generous contribution from the NSS unit, led by Mr. Salih and endorsed by Principal Mr. Riyas A.P., will directly support efforts to alleviate hardships faced by vulnerable communities, ensuring timely assistance reaches those most in need.

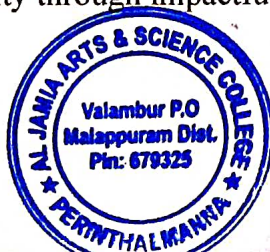

Under the steadfast leadership of Mr. Salih V., the NSS unit organized various fundraising activities and mobilized support from across the college community. Principal Mr. Riyas A.P. lauded Mr. Salih's dedication and the proactive efforts of the NSS unit, emphasizing the importance of such initiatives in nurturing a culture of social responsibility and empathy among students.

The donation ceremony, attended by Mr. Salih, Principal Mr. Riyas A.P., faculty members, and enthusiastic students, was marked by a spirit of unity and shared commitment to humanitarian causes. Their collective efforts not only exemplify the core values of Aljamia Arts and Science College but also highlight the impactful role of education in fostering civic engagement and community service.

Moving forward, under the continued guidance of Mr. Salih and Principal Mr. Riyas A.P., the NSS unit remains dedicated to upholding its mission of service and solidarity. They aim to expand their outreach and make a positive difference in society, building upon the foundation of compassion and humanitarianism set by this significant contribution to CMDRF.

As the contribution resonates across Poopalam and beyond, it serves as a poignant reminder of the power of leadership and collective action in addressing societal challenges. The exemplary efforts of Mr. Salih, Principal Mr. Riyas A.P., and the entire NSS unit at Aljamia Arts and Science College, Poopalam, reinforce their commitment to shaping responsible citizens and contributing to the community through impactful initiatives.
