REPORT

CHARITY FUND FOR KIDNEY PATIENT

In a heartfelt display of compassion, Al Jamia Arts and Science College rallied together to support Mr. Salmanul Faris, a critical patient battling severe health challenges in the Chembasseri area of Pandikkad. Mr. Faris, afflicted by both kidney and heart valve ailments, found hope as the college community came forward to alleviate his financial burdens.

Moved by Mr. Faris's plight and the financial hardship faced by his family, teachers and students of Al Jamia Arts and Science College swiftly organized efforts to raise funds for his medical expenses. The collective effort culminated in a substantial donation of fifty thousand rupees (50000/-) towards the Salmanul Faris Medical Aid Fund.

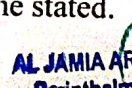

The poignant handover ceremony, held on June 7th, 2018, was graced by the presence of Mr. A P Riyas, the principal of Al Jamia Arts and Science College. With solemn dignity, Mr. Riyas presented the donation to Mr. Aboobakkar Poduvanny, chairman of the Salmanul Faris Medical Aid Fund. The occasion was also attended by executive members of the college union and Mr. N.T. Surendhran, the treasurer of the medical aid fund.

Speaking at the ceremony, Mr. Riyas underscored the spirit of empathy and solidarity that guided the college community's actions. "We recognize the critical need to support Mr. Salmanul Faris during this challenging time. Our students and staff have come together to contribute what we can to alleviate his medical expenses," he remarked.

Mr. Aboobakkar Poduvanny expressed profound gratitude on behalf of Mr. Faris and his family, acknowledging the timely support extended by the college. "This generous donation will significantly aid in Mr. Faris's ongoing medical treatment and care," he stated.
