Dear Volunteers,

In response to the recent devastating floods in Nilambur, we are organizing a house cleaning drive on January 30, 2019. This initiative aims to assist flood-affected residents in restoring their homes and bringing back a sense of normalcy to their lives.

Your participation is crucial in this noble endeavor. Let's come together to support our community during this challenging time and demonstrate the spirit of service that NSS embodies.

REPORT

POST-FLOOD RELIEF WORK IN NILAMBUR

In a commendable response to the devastating floods that inundated the region, the National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of Al Jamia Arts and Science College, Perinthalmanna, mobilized its volunteers for a house cleaning drive aimed at assisting flood-affected residents on 30th January 2019. Under the leadership of NSS Programme Officer Mr. Abdul Musabir, the initiative sought to restore normalcy to the lives of families grappling with the aftermath of the disaster.

On the day of the drive, NSS volunteers arrived at the affected areas with determination and a strong sense of purpose. The floods had left behind a trail of destruction, with homes filled with debris, mud, and silt. Recognizing the urgent need for help, the NSS unit rolled up their sleeves, ready to tackle the challenging task ahead.

Equipped with brooms, shovels, and cleaning supplies, the volunteers worked diligently to clear the affected homes. Their efforts went beyond mere cleanup; they focused on scrubbing and sanitizing living spaces to ensure the health and safety of the residents. Many families were overwhelmed by the devastation, and the presence of the volunteers brought a glimmer of hope amid the chaos.

“This initiative is not just about cleaning homes; it's about restoring dignity and hope to those who have lost so much,” said Mr. Musabir. “Our students are committed to making a difference in our community, and we are here to support our neighbors in their time of need.”

The house cleaning drive was met with gratitude from the affected residents, many of whom expressed relief and appreciation for the timely assistance. Local resident Amina K, whose home was severely impacted, shared, "Seeing these young volunteers come out to help us has lifted our spirits. It's heart warming to know that we are not alone in this crisis."

The NSS unit's efforts not only provided immediate relief but also fostered a sense of community solidarity. By coming together to help their neighbours, the volunteers exemplified the spirit of service that the NSS stands for.
