REPORT

NEW YEAR CELEBRATION WITH INMATES OF SALVA CARE HOME

The spirit of joy and camaraderie enveloped Salva Care Home today as NSS volunteers from Al Jamia Arts and Science College gathered to celebrate the onset of the new year with the residents on 31st December 2018 . This heartwarming event saw students and faculty alike joining hands to bring smiles to the faces of the inmates, marking a memorable beginning to 2019.

The day commenced with a lively atmosphere as the volunteers arrived with a festive spirit, eager to make a difference in the lives of the elderly residents at Salva Care Home. Led by NSS Coordinator Swalih, along with Union Chairman Ninal Sadique and Vice Chairman Farheena, the team of dedicated teachers including Sajna, Sahna, Sufana, and Soumisha, along with enthusiastic NSS members Sinshad, Murshid, Basil, Anjana, and Hiba, organized various activities to engage and entertain the inmates.

The highlight of the celebration was the cutting of a beautifully adorned cake, symbolizing unity and shared joy. Laughter and joy resonated throughout the premises as students and residents came together to sing songs and exchange warm wishes for the new year. It was a poignant moment, reflecting the spirit of compassion and solidarity that defines the NSS initiative at Al Jamia Arts and Science College.

Speaking about the event, NSS Coordinator Swalih expressed his delight at the overwhelming response from both volunteers and residents. "Our goal was not just to celebrate, but to create lasting memories and spread happiness. The smiles on their faces are our greatest reward," he remarked.

Union Chairman Ninal Sadique echoed these sentiments, emphasizing the importance of such initiatives in fostering a sense of community service among students. "Events like these teach us the value of empathy and the joy of giving back to society. It's a privilege to be able to bring happiness to these wonderful individuals," he added.

Vice Chairman Farheena, who actively participated in organizing the event, highlighted the collaborative effort of the entire team. "It was heartwarming to see everyone come together, from students to faculty members, to make this day special for the residents. Their happiness is truly infectious," she noted.

The event concluded with heartfelt thanks exchanged between the volunteers and the staff of Salva Care Home, underscoring the bonds formed and the positive impact of the initiative.

engagement. As the volunteers bid farewell, they carried with them not just memories of a joyous celebration, but also a renewed commitment to continue their efforts in making a difference in the lives of those in need.

The NSS volunteers of Al Jamia Arts and Science College have once again demonstrated their dedication to social responsibility and compassion, setting a shining example for the community. As they look forward to the year ahead, they remain committed to serving with enthusiasm and empathy, leaving an indelible mark on the hearts of everyone they touch.
