CIRCULAR

Dear Volunteers,

We are delighted to inform you that the NSS unit of Al Jamia Arts and Science College will be organizing a seven-day residential camp at GMLP School Nenmini from 26th December 2022 to 1st January 2023. The main projects of the camp include the construction of a road for Nenmini Anganwadi, cleaning of a pavement at Nenmini, and a cleanliness drive in GMLP School Nenmini.

The camp will also feature sessions by experts and resource persons on various topics relevant to community service and development. Your participation in this camp is crucial as it reflects our commitment to social responsibility and community engagement.

We look forward to your active involvement and contribution to making this camp a success.

REPORT

A CLEANLINESS DRIVE IN GMLP SCHOOL, NENMINI

The NSS unit of Al Jamia Arts and Science College, Perinthalmanna, demonstrated unwavering commitment to community service by organizing a comprehensive cleanliness drive in the vicinity of GMLP School, Nenmini on 30th December 2022. Aimed at bolstering hygiene standards and fostering a healthier learning environment, the initiative garnered active participation from students, faculty, and community members alike.

Led by the esteemed School Head Master, Mr. Jayaprakash, the event saw enthusiastic engagement from start to finish. Mr. Jayaprakash, emphasizing the pivotal role of cleanliness in educational settings, actively participated in the program alongside NSS volunteers. His leadership set a precedent for the community-driven effort that ensued.

The NSS Programme Officer, Mr. Salmanul Faris, played a crucial role in coordinating the logistics and ensuring the smooth execution of the drive. His guidance was instrumental in harnessing the collective energy of volunteers who diligently worked towards clearing debris, removing litter, and tidying up the school surroundings.

The collaborative effort yielded tangible results, significantly enhancing the cleanliness and aesthetic appeal of the school premises. Volunteers, faculty members, and students joined forces, demonstrating their dedication to creating a conducive environment for learning and communal activities.

In addition to the physical cleanup, the initiative underscored the importance of civic responsibility and environmental stewardship among the participants. It served as a powerful reminder of the positive impact that collective action can have on local communities.

Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Jayaprakash expressed his gratitude to all participants for their unwavering support and active involvement. He highlighted the broader significance of maintaining cleanliness not only for the school but also for the overall well-being of the
