PROGRAM REPORT

Dental Camp

The NSS Unit of Al Jamia Arts and Science College, Perinthalmanna, in collaboration with MES Dental College, Perinthalmanna, organized a successful Dental Camp on June 19, 2025. The event aimed to provide free dental check-ups and promote oral health awareness among the students, staff, and the local community. The camp was held from 10:30 AM to 3:00 PM at Al Jamia Poopalang Campus. The primary objective of the Dental Camp was to provide free dental check-ups and promote oral health awareness among the participants. The organizers aimed to identify dental problems and provide necessary treatment, including free dental cleaning for those who required it. The camp also sought to foster a sense of community and social responsibility among the participants.

The inaugural session of the Dental Camp began with a welcome speech by Shameem AP, Program Officer, NSS Unit, Al Jamia Arts and Science College. In his presidential address, Mubarak N, Vice Principal, Al Jamia Arts and Science College, emphasized the importance of oral health and hygiene. Dr. Abdul Rabbi Nistar, Principal, Al Jamia Arts and Science College, inaugurated the camp, highlighting the significance of community service and social responsibility. Dr. Shana Mariyam Kappil, Lecturer, MES Dental College, also addressed the gathering, underscoring the importance of regular dental check-ups.

Over 200 persons, including students, staff, and common people, underwent free dental check-ups during the camp. The participants were screened for various dental problems, and those who required further treatment were provided with necessary care. The doctors also recommended free dental cleaning for those who needed it, which was well-received by the participants.

The Dental Camp was a huge success, achieving its objectives of providing free dental check-ups and promoting oral health awareness. The participants benefited from the expert advice and treatment provided by the dental professionals. The camp also fostered a sense of community and social responsibility among the participants, highlighting the importance of community service and volunteerism.

The feedback from the participants was overwhelmingly positive, with many expressing their gratitude for the free dental check-ups and treatment. The participants praised the organizers for their efforts in promoting oral health awareness and providing necessary care. Some participants suggested that such events should be organized regularly, while others expressed their appreciation for the expertise and care provided by the dental professionals.

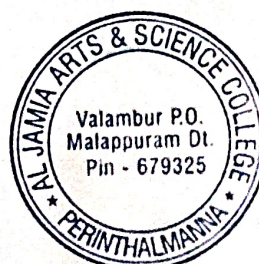

The Dental Camp organized by the NSS Unit of Al Jamia Arts and Science College, Perinthalmanna, in collaboration with MES Dental College, Perinthalmanna, was a resounding success. The event achieved its objectives, promoting oral health awareness and providing necessary care to the participants. The camp demonstrated the power of community service and social responsibility, highlighting the importance of collaboration and volunteerism. The organizers look forward to hosting more such events in the future, promoting health and well-being among the community.

The success of the program can be attributed to the active participation of the students, staff, and the local community. The event demonstrated the commitment of the NSS Unit and MES Dental College to promoting community service and social responsibility. The organizers are grateful to the participants, dental professionals, and volunteers who contributed to the success of the event.

Overall, the Dental Camp was a significant step towards promoting oral health awareness and providing necessary care to the community. The organizers hope that the event will inspire more people to prioritize their oral health and seek regular dental check-ups. With continued efforts and collaboration, we can make a significant difference in promoting health and well-being among the community.
